

Without XM radio I would not receive any radio signals because I am in a rural area of San Diego county. In fact, it would be even better if more local radio stations were included in my subscription service, that way in case of an emergency, I would be able to get that news and instructions. Leave XM radio alone, it is a wonderful alternative to the current radio humdrum.